Sackers recruits new litigation associate

Sackers announces its hiring of Amy Difford as associate in its highly regarded pensions specialist litigation team.

Peter Murphy, partner and head of pensions litigation at Sackers, said: “Amy brings invaluable experience of helping clients with the full range of disputes, from member complaints right through to high court litigation and regulatory action. She will further strengthen our ability to provide clients with pragmatic and proportionate advice on all their litigation and risk management issues and we are delighted that she has joined us.”

Amy trained at TLT and qualified in 2017. At Sackers she will advise trustees and employers on all contentious pensions matters, including litigation, regulatory action and member disputes.

Notes to Editors:

Sacker & Partners LLP (Sackers) is a top tier commercial law firm specialising in advising pension scheme trustees, employers, providers and corporate investors on all aspects of their pension arrangements.

Widely viewed as leaders in the field, Sackers advises more of the UK's top 200 pension funds than any other law firm. Sackers is consistently ranked in the top tier for pensions by both leading UK legal directories (Chambers UK and the Legal 500) and has been for over twenty years.

Based in London, Sackers provides support to trustee boards, sponsoring employers, providers and Government bodies across a range of areas, including day to day scheme management, funding and investment, projects, risk and litigation.

Sackers is an active member of the Pensions and Lifetime Savings Association and The Association of Pensions Lawyers and is technical legal expert partner to the Pensions Management Institute and Pension Chair. Sackers also works closely with TPAS, the SPP, and the Pensions Investment Academy.
