Sackers expands project management team

Sacker & Partners LLP (Sackers), the UK's leading specialist law firm for pensions and retirement savings, today announced the appointment of Raman Dhillon as a legal project manager to its project management team.

Elizabeth Nolan, senior legal project manager at Sackers, said: "Raman's skills and experience will not only complement those of the existing team, but will also ensure that she's able to hit the ground running on client projects. She will be working closely with our lawyers to deliver the high levels of service clients have come to expect from us."

David Saunders, senior partner at Sackers, said: "It's great to see our project management team continuing to go from strength to strength, in response to an evolving demand from our clients for business support and services that go far beyond traditional legal advice. Raman brings valuable experience and we're very happy to welcome her to Sackers."

Raman has project management experience in legal and financial services, including time with both Hogan Lovells and EY. She has experience of managing large complex projects across the corporate and finance sectors. Raman holds a degree in Accounting and Finance from the University of Birmingham.

Notes to Editors:

Sacker & Partners LLP (Sackers) is a top tier commercial law firm specialising in advising pension scheme trustees, employers, providers and corporate investors on all aspects of their pension arrangements.

Widely viewed as leaders in the field, Sackers advises more of the UK's top 200 pension funds than any other law firm. Sackers is consistently ranked in the top tier for pensions by both leading UK legal directories (Chambers UK and the Legal 500) and has been for over twenty years.

Based in London, Sackers provides support to trustee boards, sponsoring employers, providers and Government bodies across a range of areas, including day to day scheme management, funding and investment, projects, risk and litigation.

Sackers is an active member of the Pensions and Lifetime Savings Association and The Association of Pensions Lawyers and is technical legal expert partner to the Pensions Management Institute and Pension Chair. Sackers also works closely with TPAS, the SPP, and the Pensions Investment Academy.
