Sackers wins third Pension award for 2023

Sacker & Partners LLP (Sackers), the UK's leading specialist law firm for pensions and retirement savings, has won its third award of the year picking up the Best Pensions Law Firm award at the 2023 Corporate Adviser Awards, for the second year in a row. The ceremony, which took place in London last month, recognised providers delivering outstanding practice in pensions and employee benefits. Sackers was celebrated as a firm that demonstrates the highest level of innovation and excellence in the delivery of legal advice and services to employers, pension schemes, providers and other stakeholders. This win follows a string of wins earlier in the year with Sackers also taking home Pensions Law Firm of the Year at the 2023 Pensions Age Awards and Pensions Lawyers of the Year at the 2023 UK Pensions Awards.

David Saunders, senior partner, said: "It is a tremendous honour to be recognised by the industry and our peers in this way. As the UK's largest specialist law firm for pensions and retirement savings, we take great pride in the work we do and the service we deliver to clients. Over the last 12 months we've been involved in a huge range of innovative and complex work, including risk transfer projects, ESG and climate risk, funding structures and DC consolidation. We've also been able to help drive positive change through our EDI initiatives and our position at the heart of the industry."

Saunders continued: "To be recognised by all three of the top awards in the pensions industry is a testament not only to the work we do for our clients, but also the inclusive culture we have created at Sackers. Our people make us what we are, and it would not be possible to achieve this success without their dedication and hard work."
