Quantum Advisory promotes Simon Hubbard to Principal Consultant in Cardiff

Quantum Advisory, the leading independent financial services consultancy, today announced the promotion of Simon Hubbard to the role of Principal Consultant. Simon, who is based in the firm's Head Office in Cardiff, took up the role from 1 January 2024.

Joanne Eynon, Partner, commented: "Our success as a firm depends on the quality of our people and we are pleased to be able to recognise their achievements and support them as their career evolves. This promotion is a demonstration of how we grow our talent from within the firm, and throughout the region.

"Simon has proved himself to be an invaluable member of our team and this promotion is well deserved."

Simon added: "Since joining Quantum I have been pleased to support our clients in all aspects of their journey. I look forward to now also lending my expertise to the strategic leadership of the firm as a whole. We are an ambitious firm with grand plans and to lead the actuarial team in Cardiff will be extremely satisfying."

Simon joined Quantum in 2016 and sits on Quantum's risk transfer team, helping to manage client projects and working with major insurers to track market prices and market sentiment.

He has over fifteen years of experience delivering trustee and corporate consulting advice including valuation negotiations, benefit change projects, company pensions accounting and member option exercises.

He is also a member of Quantum's Defined Benefit Strategy Group and assists with the development of Quantum's in-house actuarial models.

Simon is currently Scheme Actuary to a number of pension schemes.
