Quantum Advisory promotes Darren Wateridge to Principal Consultant in London

Quantum Advisory, the leading independent financial services consultancy today announced the promotion of Darren Wateridge FIA to the role of Principal Consultant. Darren, who is based in the firm's London office, took up the role on the 1st of January 2024.

Rhidian Williams, Partner said: "Our people are at the centre of our success as a business, and we invest in the highest calibre of staff. Their continued support and development is part of our ethos so promoting talent from within is key. Throughout his career at Quantum Darrens talent, commitment and client management expertise has been apparent. We are confident he will continue to excel in his new position and play a pivotal role in the continued growth of the company."

Darren Wateridge added: "The market landscape is the most dynamic and competitive it has ever been, and we welcome that challenge. We have some really exciting plans and initiatives coming up this year to further support our clients.

"It has been a privilege to be part of the evolution of Quantum over the last 10 years and I am very much looking forward to now being integral to the strategic leadership going forward."

Darren joined the Firm in 2013 as a Senior Consultant and Actuary and has over 25 years' experience in the pensions industry.

He is currently Scheme Actuary to a number of pension scheme clients and advises trustees and companies on the wide range of issues affecting pension schemes including; scheme funding, company accounting, scheme benefit change exercises and de-risking strategies.

Darren is also a member of the Association of Consulting Actuaries.

This is the latest in a string of promotions for the firm, most recently with Simon Hubbard to Principal Consultant in Cardiff.
