PRESS RELEASE

09 July 2025

Sackers appoints two new associates

Sacker & Partners LLP (Sackers), the UK's leading specialist law firm for pensions and retirement savings, today announced the appointment of two new associates - Alexandra Bellis and Enda Kerr. Their arrival takes the total number of lawyers at Sackers to 79.

David Saunders, senior partner at Sackers, commented: "It is really important that we continue to recruit lawyers at all levels so that we can resource our client teams with the right mix of seniority and experience. Our clients need us to be able to work on multiple projects without taking our eye off the ball on all their business as usual work. Alex and Enda have been attracted to Sackers by the rich diet of work that we offer and our stellar client list. They bring much needed additional resource and are most welcome."

Alexandra Bellis is a five-year qualified lawyer who trained at Sharpe Pritchard, joined Pinsent Masons on qualification and then moved to Stephenson Harwood. Enda Kerr is a four-year qualified lawyer who trained and qualified at Arthur Cox in Dublin before moving to Pinsent Masons in London. At Sackers they will be advising trustees and employers on a broad range of pensions issues relating to their DB and DC pension arrangements, including scheme management, investment and funding, member queries and regulatory compliance
