

ZEDRA appoints Stuart Travers as Client Director

9 July 2026

[UK – 9 July 2026] – ZEDRA, an award-winning provider of pension and incentive services, has appointed Stuart Travers as Client Director. Based in Bristol, Stuart joined the firm in July.

Kim Nash, Managing Director at ZEDRA, commented: “As the professional trustee market matures, we’re seeing strong demand from schemes across a wide range of governance models and pension arrangements, including sole trusteeships, trustee boards and DB, DC and master trust schemes.

“We’ve always believed that the best outcomes come from bringing together people with different experiences and perspectives. Our Client Directors have worked across a wide range of roles and organisations in the pensions industry, creating a depth and breadth of expertise that strengthens our team and benefits our clients. Stuart’s background across consultancy, strategic leadership and professional trusteeship is a great example of that, and we’re delighted to welcome him to the team.”

Stuart Travers added: “ZEDRA has built an outstanding reputation for independent trusteeship, combining deep technical expertise with a collaborative, client-focused approach. The opportunity to work across such a diverse range of clients and trustee appointments, while maintaining a clear commitment to independence, was one of the things that really attracted me to the role. I’m excited to be joining the team and look forward to supporting clients as they navigate the opportunities and challenges ahead.”

Stuart brings many years’ experience in the pensions industry. Before joining ZEDRA, he was Head of Wealth Strategy at Gallagher, following Trustee Director roles at IGG and Vidett, where he advised pension schemes on governance, strategy and trustee decision-making.
