Quantum announces Partner promotions

Quantum Advisory, the leading independent financial services consultancy, has promoted Aled Edwards, Amanda Burdge and Chris Heirene to Partner. The promotions will take effect from 1 May 2019 taking total Partner numbers to 12.

Rhidian Williams, Partner at Quantum Advisory, said: “This is a very exciting time for Quantum. These promotions are very much deserved and fully recognise the hard work and dedication of the individuals concerned. We now employ 115 staff across the UK and we have a strong and ambitious growth plan for the future, our expert team are key to helping us achieve it. Over the past few years we have seen exponential interest in not only the services we provide but in how we deliver them - our company ethos, dynamic and personality is extremely important to us alongside our expertise.

“We’ve no doubt that Aled, Amanda and Chris will settle into their new roles with ease and we look forward to working together to grow Quantum even further.”

Aled joined Quantum in 2011 and has over 17 years’ pensions experience. As Principal Consultant and Actuary he manages the actuarial team within Quantum’s Cardiff office as well as having responsibility for overseeing the provision of technical training for all staff.

Amanda joined Quantum in 2001. As Principal Investment Consultant she heads up Quantum’s investment consultancy offering and is responsible for providing investment advice and expertise to many of Quantum’s key clients covering defined benefit and defined contribution schemes.

Chris joined Quantum on 2011 having worked with the firm for five years as an external consultant. As IT Manager he is responsible for Quantum’s IT systems across all of its offices, including the network and core server infrastructure which supports the business, and is heavily involved in utilising IT solutions to improve and build upon the processes and service offerings.
